

APPLY NOW:

Lee Roy B. Giles Award

The Lee Roy B. Giles Encouragement Award celebrates a student who exhibits some form of excellence in the area of African American Studies, whether through research, practical application, or academic experience. Preference shown to those who major, minor, or earn a graduate certificate in African American Studies, conduct research relevant to the discipline of African American Studies, and/or students who fit the aforementioned criteria who have been accepted into a non-European study abroad program. However, we encourage anyone interested to apply.

Application Criteria:

- Be in Good Academic Standing
- Application personal statement (~2 pages) including student name, 81 number, full contact information, & program of study (including service to and/or involvement within African American Studies)
- Resume or CV
- One Faculty Recommendation Letter

Lee Roy B. Giles

Deadline:

- Email all materials to Ashaé Burgess (ab75624@uga.edu) by March 6, 2026.
- Winners will be notified on March 20, 2026.
- Note: Winners must attend an in-person Award Ceremony on April 17, 2026 from 6-8 PM.
- Questions? Email Dr. Feracho lferacho@uga.edu or Dr. Medine medine@uga.edu

$1000

AWARD

1 Undergraduate &
1 Graduate Student